THE ONLY No-Under-Shadow Light

There's nothing misleading about that heading.

The Angle Lamp

It, in its effect, exactly like sunlight. It is, like the sun, up out of the way, and throws its clear, enjoyable light both outward and downward with no bothersome shadows to annoy or to spoil the lighting effect. There's no other light does that—no other light that has "NO-UNDER-SHADOW" But don't stop at that; look at the other features, too. With a minimum of expense, of trouble and of heat there is obtained a maximum of light and real satisfaction. Every annoying feature of gas, electricity, gasoline and acetylene is obviated. This tells the story of a great combination. It uses ordinary kerosene (or coal) oil—one quart in sixteen hours. Its light is more brilliant than gas or electricity, with no more heat—no smoke—no odor—no "drawing up"—no removing of globe or top to light—filled while burning.

Artistic Cemetery Work

Plain—substantial—dignified. These are the terms which properly characterize the hand-somest memorial stone.

We have elaborate designs, of course, but wish particularly to call attention to our plain, highly polished monuments.

When the plain surface is properly relieved by artistic lettering then the true effect contemplated by the designer will result. Call and see the new stock.

JURIES ACCUSE JONES

The jurors sitting in the cases of Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Parmenter yesterday afternoon returned the following verdicts:

"That the said Linda K. Jones came to her death at Honolulu, Island of Oahu, on the morning of the 23rd day of August, A. D. 1932, from injuries to her head caused by a bullet passing through it, said bullet having been discharged out of a revolver held in the hands of one Edward Mitchell Jones, said revolver being discharged as aforesaid by said Edward Mitchell Jones with intent to kill the said Mrs. Linda K. Jones."

"That the said Mrs. Parmenter came to her death at Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, August 26, 1932, from a gunshot wound in the head, caused by a bullet discharged out of a revolver held in the hands of one Edward Mitchell Jones, said revolver being discharged as aforesaid by said Edward Mitchell Jones with intent to kill the said Mrs. Sarah Parmenter."

The jurors sat yesterday afternoon. The jurors on the Mrs. Jones case were: H. W. Kinney, G. W. R. King, E. W. Campbell, C. D. Pringle, W. T. Blacker and C. L. Sprinks. On the inquest on Mrs. Parmenter's death were: P. H. Burnette, T. R. Lucas, Chas. Fullerton, D. H. Davies, E. E. Morgan and Ed Paris.

Emerson's Testimony.

Dr. Emerson was the first witness called. He stated that on last Sunday morning he had examined the body of Mrs. Jones. The cause of death was a bullet wound in the head, passing through the brain. The wound of entrance was above the ear. The hair was singed near there and small powder specks were in the skin. This showed that the shot had been fired at close range. Found the bullet on opposite side of the head. The bullet, to which fragments of the skull were still clinging, was exhibited to the jury.

Officer Kane's Part.

Police Officer Kane, who was the first officer to arrive on the scene of the tragedy, stated that at about 12:30 o'clock Saturday night he arrived at Mrs. Jones' place on Kinai street. He met Mrs. Jones and Pixley, who showed him Jones, who was lying in the hammock, apparently drunk. Mrs. Jones and Pixley told Kane to go to telephone for the patrol wagon. Pixley promising that he would look after Jones. Kane went to the police call box and called for the patrol wagon. He was told by the station clerk that the wagon was coming from Waikiki, so he went to the corner of Alakea and King streets to head it off. While he was waiting there Pixley came and told him that there was shooting going on at Mrs. Jones' place, so he went there. He found Mrs. Parmenter wounded and telephoned to the police station. He then looked around for Mrs. Jones and found her lying dead in the garden. He escorted Mrs. Marcus Parmenter and the boy Albert. She was awakened at 12:30 by her sister-in-law, who told her that Jones was drunk on the lanai. She testified to the goings and comings of Mrs. Parmenter and Mrs. Jones before the shooting. The witness warned Mrs. Parmenter not to go out. She went out notwithstanding, and fifteen minutes later the witness heard a shot. Mrs. Jones went into the yard. Jones rushed back and caught her. He said: "Now I've caught you at last. I will kill you and then kill myself." Then he shot and Mrs. Jones fell. Mrs. Parmenter stood in the window and saw her fall. She heard two more shots after that. She locked herself in the room with the little boy. When she went out again it was when Mrs. Parmenter was on Mr. King's veranda. There were about five shots fired altogether. The witness knew nothing about the arrival of the officer because she was in the house. Jones fired two shots at Mrs. Jones.

Dr. Miner's Examination.

Dr. F. L. Miner stated that he had examined the body of Mrs. Parmenter. The cause of death was septic meningitis caused by the impact of a bullet making a round penetrating wound over the right eyebrow, at the junction of the middle and outer third of the supra-orbital ridge. The skin was blackened by powder and the eyebrows partly burned away. A probe passed through the eyeball and came out at the inner angle of the eye, to the angle of the lower jaw. Inside. The wound was further described in technical terms. The bullet lodged below the collar-bone after passing through the neck. This was sufficient to set up the inflammation, which caused death. From the nature of the wound that the woman had not been erect when the shot was fired; that it was fired from above her.

Conductor Pixley Testifies.

C. E. Pixley then took the stand. He stated that last Saturday night at about 12:45 a. m. he first saw Mrs. Jones on Beretania street running up towards the lane leading to her house. He went through the lane to his house, which is next door to that of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Parmenter asked his assistance since there was a drunk on the stoop. He joined Mrs. Parmenter on the sidewalk. Pixley wanted to go in to take out this drunk but Mrs. Parmenter prevented him, saying it was better to let him sleep until the police officer came. Mrs. Parmenter then left him. Shortly after Mrs. Jones came out, asked for her mother and went back again. She came out and went back several times. She said she did not know what the drunk was. His snoring woke her at 11:40. Pixley said he thought it was a drunk who rode on his car, transferred to Manoa, and coming back came on his car again. The man tried to get off but was prevented from doing so by Pixley until the car came to a corner in the neighborhood. Then he got off and had just time to get to the place at 11:40.

The police officer arrived and asked for the drunk. He was told and then went to ring for the police. Mrs. Jones asked him not to go away but he did go. Mrs. Jones came out again but went back into the house. She spoke of the slowness of the police. Mrs. Parmenter soon arrived. She told Pixley that the drunk was Jones. She thought that he had stolen their jewelry the week before. He had slept all night in the hammock on one occasion shortly previous. Pixley was afraid that he might be taken for a connection of Mrs. Jones by Jones but still remained. She stated that Jones was under bonds to keep the peace and had no business there. Both sat down on the curb together. Some dogs began barking. Pixley kept listening for Jones. Suddenly the snoring stopped. Pixley called Mrs. Parmenter's attention to this. About three minutes later, Jones appeared on top of the gate with the gun in his hand. Pixley whispered to Mrs. Parmenter "Here he comes," and ran. He called back "Don't, oh, please don't." He looked back and saw that Jones had hold of Mrs. Parmenter. Mrs. Jones had come out. She was crying: "Mamma, mamma." He then heard a shot and soon after that another. Pixley kept on running. He had decided to fetch a policeman. While he was thinking, he heard two more shots. He got in a hack which passed by, telling the hackman that he was afraid of getting shot. He then found the policeman. He thought the policeman must have been absent about a half hour. He went in the patrol wagon to the place of the shooting.

Mrs. Marcus Parmenter.

Mrs. Marcus Parmenter stated that on the night of the shooting she was in the house with Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Parmenter, and the boy Albert. She was awakened at 12:30 by her sister-in-law, who told her that Jones was drunk on the lanai. She testified to the goings and comings of Mrs. Parmenter and Mrs. Jones before the shooting. The witness warned Mrs. Parmenter not to go out. She went out notwithstanding, and fifteen minutes later the witness heard a shot. Mrs. Jones went into the yard. Jones rushed back and caught her. He said: "Now I've caught you at last. I will kill you and then kill myself." Then he shot and Mrs. Jones fell. Mrs. Parmenter stood in the window and saw her fall. She heard two more shots after that. She locked herself in the room with the little boy. When she went out again it was when Mrs. Parmenter was on Mr. King's veranda. There were about five shots fired altogether. The witness knew nothing about the arrival of the officer because she was in the house. Jones fired two shots at Mrs. Jones.

Ante-Mortem Statement.

At this time Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth read the ante-mortem statement of Mrs. Parmenter, as follows: "I think I am seriously injured and that I may die. Believing as I do, I wish to make a statement. About 12:30 a. m. this morning my daughter called me from her room. I answered her. She said she thought that Mr. Gear had come home and was asleep on the veranda. I went into her room and stood by the window to listen. I heard the snoring. I told my daughter that we must go and wake him up. I put on my dress and got a lamp and opened the door of Maria Parmenter's room. I went out on the veranda and touched him, saying 'Mr. Gear.' I then saw it was Mr. Eddie Jones, divorced husband of my daughter. I ran in the house and closed the door because I was frightened. I told my daughter it was Eddie. I said, 'What shall we do?' She said, 'Call up the police station.' My daughter, Mrs. Jones, and I went next to the pumping station to telephone to the police station. Mrs. Jones came home ahead of me. The policeman arrived and saw Jones. The policeman was slow. The conductor came home. I don't know his name. He lives next door. I asked him to come and stay with us until the policeman got back. We stayed outside. The policeman came back and went off saying he was going for the patrol wagon. Three-quarters of an hour afterward we were still outside, the conductor and I. Jones was still in the hammock. In a little while we heard a noise. Saw Jones jump the fence onto Kinai street. Jones chased after the conductor. In a little while Jones came for me.

"Jones chased the conductor towards Waikiki. Jones came to me and got hold of me. I said 'Pau, Eddie.' 'Pau,' he said, 'Pau, eh? You are at the bottom of all this trouble.' He then fired a shot at me with a pistol. The flash blinded me for a minute. I did not know what I was doing. The girls sang out to me when they heard the pistol shot. I did not answer. Before that Jones asked me where Linda was. I do not know whether I was hit then. I called out 'Haul in! A. King! Jones ran into the yard and Mrs. Jones said 'Who is that?' Jones said 'Who is that, eh?' Then Linda screamed and Jones fired the pistol. I do not know whether Linda fell or not. He then came back to me. I called out 'Haul in! He said 'Haul in, eh?' Then he fired, and fired a second shot. I was hit by the last shot and fell down. I put my hand up and felt something warm on my face. I was hit right in the eye. I think he then went to look for Linda. That is the last I saw of him.

"I make this statement believing I am not going to get well. I asked Dr. Walters if I was going to get well. He was slow in answering me, so I trust my life in the hands of the Lord. When I heard an answering voice to Linda's question, 'Who is that?' I knew it was Eddie Jones' voice."

G. W. R. King then made the following statement: "Early Sunday morning I awoke. I heard a shot. Three or four seconds later I heard another shot and heard a woman scream: 'Mr. King help. Haul in.' He heard two other shots and rushed out. He heard a man's voice saying 'between me and my wife. I am going to kill myself.' He found Mrs. Parmenter in the street and took her over to his house. He called Mr. Campbell, who later on phoned for a doctor and for Mr. Colburn. After a long wait Kane came. He was told of the trouble. Mrs. Parmenter had said that Eddie Jones did the shooting. Kane went in the little gate of Mrs. Jones' house. He next went to the front door of the house. He escorted Mrs. Maria Parmenter and her little boy over to Mr. King's house. The officer got on his wheel and went off a little later. Soon after that, the patrol wagon arrived.

Campbell, Sprinks and King stated that they had not gone over to the assistance of Mrs. Jones during the time which was between the shooting and the arrival of the patrol wagon. This time was estimated at about half an hour. Mr. King was occupied with attending to Mrs. Parmenter, who had sought refuge on his porch. At the rendering of the verdict the Deputy Sheriff asked the jurors if they had any recommendations to make and more especially if they wanted to censure the police department. The jurors decided they would not.

RECEPTION TO JUDD.

A farewell reception was given last evening by the members of Palama Chapel in honor of Henry P. Judd, who leaves for Auburn, New York, in Tuesday's Sonoma to pursue theological studies. Mr. Judd has been a hard worker for Palama Chapel during the past year and the pretty reception given him last evening shows how well his efforts are appreciated. A program consisting of many musical numbers, was followed by a speech from Mr. Judd and then refreshments were served. The Chapel was tastefully decorated with flowers and was filled to its utmost capacity with friends of the retiring superintendent.

Skimmed milk is one of the most economical foods.
